王夏琳 FOR OAKLAND DISTRICT 2

FOR A SAFE AND AFFORDABLE OAKLAND

MEET CHARLENE WANG

EARLY LIFE

Charlene is an East Bay native. Her grandparents lived in West Oakland affordable housing, raising her on weekends.

She earned degrees in engineering and public policy from Columbia and Harvard. She was a NASA intern before dedicating her career to public service.

EXPERIENCE

Charlene is dedicated to fighting for disadvantaged communities and improving government.

In Boston, she helped transform the homeless response system, getting people off the streets and into supportive housing.

In Washington DC, she helped launch a $4 billion program to reconnect communities, bringing money to Oakland to improve safety and revitalize West Oakland.

Now, she's running for City Council to fight for you.

Charlene served as a Special Advisor in the Biden-Harris administration

CHARLENE'S PLAN

SAFETY

- Hiring additional police officers and expanding violence prevention
- Combatting human trafficking in District 2 and supporting survivors
- Modernizing police technology and accountability

BUDGET

- Tackling wasteful spending and ensuring accountability in contracting
- Cutting red tape for small businesses and attracting new enterprise
- Improving efficiency and avoiding harmful cuts to city services

COMMUNITY

- Building more housing close to jobs and transit
- Smoother, safer streets for families driving, walking, and biking
- Cleaning up neighborhoods and getting people off the streets
